

EQUITY'S CHARGES AGAINST SHUBERTS TO BE ARBITRATED

Conference Set for Monday—
Violation of Agreement After 1919 Strike Is Alleged.

Differences between the Actors' Equity Association and the Shuberts, whose expulsion from the Producing Managers' Association is demanded for an alleged violation of the agreement which terminated the actors' strike of 1919, will be arbitrated next week. It was indicated to-day by those in touch with the situation.

The Managers' Association issued a statement after a two hours' meeting, in which it was stated that the Shuberts would "give a categorical answer" to the charges of the Equity next Thursday and that a meeting between the producing firm and representatives of the actors would be held Monday "to go into the matter in detail."

While the Managers' Association was in session the Equity received a shock in the announcement of the Dramatists' Guild of the Authors' League of America protesting against the proposed "Equity Shop," which, the playwrights held, is an effect of a "closed shop."

John Emerson, President of the Equity, who led in pressing the charges against the Shuberts, has obtained the names of ten authors who voted against the resolution of protest and, it is stated, plans to form another Authors' League which will be affiliated with the Equity and, therefore, the American Federation of Labor.

Although the meeting of the Managers' Association was behind closed doors, the deliberations became generally known. The Shuberts, denying they violated their agreements, said they would investigate all complaints and, if they found any cause for them, would remove them. Lee Shubert intimated that the whole trouble was started by a few disgruntled employees, principally chorus people.

One manager, who would not permit his name to be used, seemed to voice the opinions of most of the managers and indicated that the Equity movement is another step in its attempt to force the "Equity Shop" upon the American theatre, and that the task would be a comparatively easy one if the Shuberts, who control 100 theatres employing 500 actors and operating two booking agencies, could be removed from the Managers' Association.

Love at First Sight Marriage Results in the Usual Petition For Annulment.

Love at first sight which culminated in a marriage had its sequel to-day in a suit for annulment brought by Mrs. Christine C. Corsaut against her husband, Lorne Corsaut, in the Supreme Court before Justice Lydon.

Mrs. Corsaut, who asked that her marriage be annulled because she found she alleged, that her husband "was a reputable, dishonest and dishonest" in his brokerage business, said they fell in love when they first met in Atlantic City. She invited him to her home in Amsterdams, N. Y., where her parents were pleased with him, she continued, and had no suspicion of him, she said, until he began to handle some of her money.

Several persons who said they were former customers of Corsaut testified that he had defrauded them of various sums.

Justice Lydon reserved decision.

Sensors on Harbor Improvement

A party of eight United States Senators, seven of whom are members of the Senate Committee on Commerce, started to-day on a boat tour of New York Bay, the Hackensack and Passaic Rivers and New York Bay. The route was the same as that taken by the members of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors last year. The Senators are studying possible improvements.

I Wish She Had Better Color

YOU have heard this so often. Some little lady of eight or ten years is giving her mother a lot of worry because she is listless and lacks the satisfying bloom of youth. Look to her diet. Most likely she is getting too much of the things that make the readiest appeal to taste. What she needs is milk. Not just a glass full once in a while but a whole quart a day. Milk will put color in her cheeks. Milk will put vigor into her romping.

If the little lady says she doesn't like milk tell her of the wonders of nature's finest food. Let her understand why she should drink milk. She'll easily learn to like it.

HELD AS LEADER OF DRUG-SELLING RING RUN BY BOYS

Agents Report Finding of
$2,000 Cocaine Cache—Six
Youths Arrested.

Thomas Cusimano, nineteen, of No. 249 E. 13th Street, oldest of six boys who were arrested last night by Special Deputy Police Commissioner Dr. Carleton Simon, head of the Narcotic Squad, on the charge of drug selling, was held to-day in the Essex Market Court in $10,000 bail for a hearing on Jan. 17.

Cusimano, who pleaded not guilty, was arrested with his brother Joseph, twelve; Salvatore Cappadoro, fourteen, of No. 256 E. 13th Street; Philip Tulella, fourteen, of No. 223 First Avenue; Frank Sautin, fourteen, of No. 359 E. 13th Street, and Salvatore Sedate, fifteen, of No. 222 E. 13th Street.

The police charge Cusimano with selling cocaine and the boys with juvenile delinquency, alleged to have been committed in selling drugs for Cusimano.

Late yesterday Capt. Scherb and six of his men went to Cusimano's home and there, they say, they found vials of cocaine and heroin worth $2,000, cached in many places.

Dr. Simon charges that the boys received 25 per cent. of the price of their sales and 10 per cent. for acting as "pickers" and lookouts. The boys, it was said, were as proficient in detecting a detective as an addict, and so many raids were spoiled.

Jersey City Woman Gets Insurance of Husband Who Deserted Her—Killed in France.

Although he deserted her and refused to support her while he was alive, James Alford, a former resident of Jersey City, who was killed in action overseas in 1915, will by his death keep in comparative comfort his wife, Mrs. Margaret Alford of No. 208 Ninth Street, Jersey City, and his two daughters, Margaret, sixteen, and Helen, eleven. Five years ago Alford deserted his wife.

Enlisting in the army under the name of James J. Ford he took out $10,000 in the war risk insurance, naming a relative in Pennsylvania as beneficiary.

Counselor Frank Reardon took the matter up with the War Department and to-day was informed that Mrs. Alford would receive $52.50 every month which the Government pays on the premium. Mrs. Alford will also receive $1,000 from the Prudential Life Insurance Company. The insurance had lapsed since 1917, but had an extension clause so that the widow was able to get the full amount.

FLATBUSH FARES BOOSTED MONDAY

Beginning at 5 A. M. Residents Below Foster Avenue Will Be Charged Another Nickel.

Double fares will be charged on the Flatbush Avenue line beginning at 5 o'clock Monday morning, it was announced to-day by H. Hobart Porter, Vice President of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company.

Foster Avenue, the dividing line, was the point at which wild scenes occurred last summer when the company sought to collect another nickel from passengers.

The Appellate Division has dissolved the injunction granted by the Supreme Court against the extra fare.

Mr. Porter to-day said he anticipated no trouble and had made no plans for sending extra inspectors to the Foster Avenue to eject recalcitrant passengers from cars, as was done last summer when they refused to pay an additional five cents.

"I believe the public is willing to pay a fair price for what it receives. A five-cent fare does not pay the operating and other expenses," he said.

...Dresses, $7...

A very wise suggestion for Misses

These are wool jersey frocks and wool serge frocks—two of the most practical fabrics imaginable. The sizes are 14 to 20; and the $7 price is now possible because we are closing out dresses that have been held for out-of-town customers.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Building

Pin-Money Shop has Frocks at $8.95

Women as well as misses can share in this offer. The navy blue serge is a firm quality; and wool embroidery is a happy touch of trimming. Tunic models and straight-line effects. Sizes 16 and 18, and 34 to 44.

Rotunda—Down-Stairs Store, Old Building

Remarkable, surely— Women's Suits, $27.75

These are fine worsted jersey suits, silk lined; and that is the remarkable part of the story. We have had unlined jersey suits at $27.50 earlier, but NOT the silk lined suits. Furthermore, they are tailored, not merely sewed together. Worsteds jersey is a very practical fabric, specially for early spring; and these suits for women fit the case exactly.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Building

Last of these Girls' Frocks, $6.95

We're quite sure this will be the last—$6.95 is so very low. The original prices were $8.75 to $12.75; and the variety includes serge, silk, and one regulation model. Sizes are 6 to 14, but not every size in every style.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Building

White Waists humbled to $1.50

The original price was $2.95. But now—$1.50. Little need to tell mother how useful white batiste and voile waists; and these, with their pretty frills, serve many purposes. Sizes 36 to 44.

Down-Stairs Store, Old Building

Have you heard about Blankets?

Do you know how much prices have dropped?....Do you realize what good opportunities are now ready for all who can see the immediate advantage? For instance:

- Single cotton blankets for bed sheets, gray or white, 70x90 in. were $1.50, now $1.50 each
- Three-quarter cotton blankets with pink or blue borders. were $2.95 pair
- White cotton blankets with pink or blue borders, double bed size. were $3.75 each
- Cotton plaid blankets—pink, blue, tan or gray; double bed size. were $3.50 pair
- Wool-mixed blankets, double bed size. were $5.50 pair
- Wool-mixed blankets (a large percentage of wool), double bed size. were $7.50 pair

Odd Blankets—Out

Fine wool-mixed blankets, white with pink or blue borders; double bed size; $12.50 grade; now. $8.50

Wool-mixed blankets, pink or blue borders, double bed size—$14 and $15 grades; now. $10

Washable Fabrics make a discovery

Fancy white voile now finds itself marked 45c a yard. The old price, not so long ago, was 75c a yard. Soft and fine for waists, dresses, children's wear and such.

REMNANTS are downcast, too. Good voiles are as low as 25c a yard. Good ginghams can be had at 18c a yard. Colored madras is marked 39c a yard. And so on throughout the long list.

Feature Sales Monday for Large Women

Blouses in large sizes (Georgette crepe—silk—satin—crepe de chine) $3.95—were $7.95 to $14.50

This sale includes 8 models in sizes 46 to 52—sizes neglected by most sales. 250 blouses in all—of Georgette crepe, Jap silk, satin and crepe de chine, in a choice of some eight models. The woman who has difficulty in being fitted in an inexpensive blouse will be glad of the opportunity to buy several of these.

Other models are beaded and embroidered in self color or in contrasting effects.

Square, round and V neck lines.

In a flesh color, white, ecru, taupe, and a few of the models in suit colors—midnight blue, brown and black.

Second floor, Old Building

Suits for large women featured at $75

They were $98.50 to $110

Just a few of these—25—that are left from a most attractive stock of beautifully designed suits. Each model was developed with particular care for the lines that emphasize length and slenderness, and achieve that immaculately groomed air that the larger woman demands.

In fine velours de laine, duvet de laine, and a few tricotines, in semi-fitted and belted models.

The shoulder and sleeve lines are irreproachable, every detail is beautifully tailored.

Made with slim V-necklines and lapels, and also with adjustable collars.

In black, midnight blue and dark brown.

Second floor, Old Building

Baronet Satin Skirts, $12.75

For large women

This type of sports skirt is difficult for the large woman to find in modes suitable for her. But this model, special at $12.75, is very simple and contrives, by hidden pockets and absolutely straight lines, to give the suggestion of length and slenderness.

In midnight blue, gray, white, black.

Belt measures 34 to 42.

Second floor, Old Building

For the large woman the importance of the right Lingerie cannot be overestimated if she is to maintain the well groomed appearance which is her charm. We specialize in this lingerie. In our own workrooms in Porto Rico our needle women fashion it from the carefully selected nain-sook which we send to them.

Each piece of lingerie is cut on patterns especially adapted to the large women, and trimmed with the simplicity which is most becoming to her; hemstitching, a bit of drawn work, and small sprays of embroidery.

Bodices, $1.50 and $1.95.
Envelope chemises, $3.95.
Gowns, $3.95 and $5.95.

Drawers, $2.95 and $3.95.

Straight chemise, $3.95 and $5.

Third floor, Old Building

House Dresses

For the large woman

$3.85 to $6.75

Five models. Each one features the long, straight lines which are so trim and becoming.

Waist line and Billie Burke models, with collars and cuffs of pique or of the material. Of chambray, checked gingham, plaid gingham, figured voile, dark and light blues, gray, green, pink, lavender. Sizes 46 to 52.

Third floor, Old Building

Silk Petticoats

For the large woman

Generously made petticoats

finished with an almost straight flounce; petticoats fashioned on lines which complement the straight simplicity of the large woman's gowns. Of a fine heavy satin, $8.95; of taffeta in changeable colors, $6.45.

Green, brown, taupe, cerise, purple.

Third floor, Old Building

Didn't expect it!

Lustrous Charmeuse

In 27 shades | 40 in. wide... $2.15

A year ago it was $4.50 a yard. Today it is in our regular stock at $3 a yard. But on Monday, when this special shipment arrives, it will be $2.15 a yard. Plenty of black, brown, gray and other wanted colors; all so very useful that nimble fingers can anticipate busy hours. Just 5,000 yards—not a large quantity—so don't wait too long. Ready Monday.

Main floor, Old Building.

Mink Scarfs at less than half price

A small collection of carefully selected mink skins, in one and two-skin scarfs, are offered at less than half price.

At $15

One skin scarfs; soft and good for the price.

At $18.50
